

INVITATION IBS Week 2016 in STOCKHOLM!

The Stockholm Business School student association has the great pleasure of inviting you to the International Business Week 2016 in Stockholm, taking place 9 - 13 May 2016.

During this week you will be given the opportunity to get to know Swedish students, participate in case studies and other workshops at Stockholm Business School, visit global companies and attend guest lectures. You will also get to explore Stockholm and its fascinating museums, vibrant neighborhood, food culture, nightlife and much more. The entire International Business Student Week will be held in English. As you will be staying with a Swedish business student during your trip, you will get to first-hand experience the Swedish culture and student life.

The total costs for this week are your travel costs to and in Stockholm plus 150 euro (appx 1425 krona) for your accommodation at a student's place (or hostel depending on availability) and most activities during the week.

Apply now by completing the Application Form and send it to studentcoordinator.ibsweek@foreningekonomena.se
