

FAQ

- What is the application deadline? The deadline for sending in applications is March 17th, 2016.
- How many students participate in the IBS Week? Every year we invite 20 students from abroad. Additionally, 20 local students participate as buddies to the international students.
- How often does the IBS Week take place? The IBS Week takes place once a year at the end of the spring semester. This year the IBS Week takes place 9 - 13 May 2016.
- Are there any minimum English requirements? A intermediate to proficient level of English is required.
- How many nights do the students stay in the arranged accommodation? Students stay 6 (Sunday May 8 - Saturday May 14) nights at arranged accommodation. This can be either at a local host from the student association or in a hostel. We aim at placing all 20 participating students in a local student's place.
- How much does the IBS Week cost? The costs for accommodation and the activities during the week are 150 euro and are to be transferred to the student associations bank account after acceptance to the IBS Week. The student has to budget around 80-150 euro extra for transport, food, extra sightseeing and souvenirs.
