How to find a PhD Programme

Selection of Graduate Schools and Research Training Groups

DFG Graduate Schools

www.dfg.de

Graduate schools are funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG) and offer ideal conditions for doctoral students within a broad scientific area.

Doctoral Training Programmes

www.helmholtz.de

In collaboration with various institutions of higher education, Helmholtz Association research centres have established structured PhD programmes under the auspices of Helmholtz Graduate Schools and Helmholtz Research Schools.

List of Research Training Groups

Research Training Groups are also funded by the DFG for a period of up to nine years.

Max Planck Research Schools

www.mpg.de

Because the Max Planck Society (MPG) specialises in innovative basic research, its institutes are able to offer up-and-coming researchers excellent infrastructure and support.
