

Invitation to the International Business Week 2020 in Stockholm, Sweden

The International Committee of Föreningen Ekonomerna, the Business Association at Stockholm University, cordially invites your University to participate in the International Business Week 2020. This year's event, which also marks the sixth anniversary of the project, will take place between the 9th and the 16th of May in Stockholm, Sweden.

The week will include a variety of activities ranging from company visits to fun activities with SBS students. Not only is this an amazing opportunity for students to participate in world class lectures and make international friends, but also a chance to network with key employees at large and successful Scandinavian and International companies.

To be able to participate, applicants will have to cover a fee of EUR180, which includes accommodation, a range of social and cultural activities and some delicious meals. In addition to this amount, the participant will be in charge of the travelling fees to and within Stockholm.

To apply, please send your CV and a motivational letter answering on these three questions:

- Why would you like to participate?
- Why should we choose you?
- What do you expect from International Business Week?

E-mail your answer to ibweek@foreningenekonomerna.se latest by Friday the 13th of March.

If you have any questions about the project, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind regards,

Alfiya Kulukaeva
